SIXTEEN CANDIDATES FOR FALL ASB OFFICES TO BE PRESENTED AT NOMINATIONS ASSEMBLY TODAY

"All petitions are in, and today's the day that the candidates for ASB offices for the coming year will be presented at the nominations assembly to be held in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 12:30," announces President Tom Taylor.

Totaling 16, the petitions are for the three major ASB positions for next year. The general election will be Monday, May 17. As the eligibility of all the candidates has not been completely checked, the names will not be publicly released until the assembly today, Taylor states. Eight women and three men are running for Student Council positions; three women for Yell Leaders, and two men for Student Court. A woman is needed to fill the required number of women in the Court.

In accordance with the Constitution, no posters for the offices may be posted until the end of the Nominations Assembly. No political placards or other forms of electioneering shall be allowed after the election has started between the five main doors of the front corridors. Election judge is Marvin Zemanek.

All nominators and nominees are asked to report to the Morris Dailey at 12:15 to receive instructions about the nominations procedure from Tom Taylor.

An explanation of the proposed amendments to Articles IV and VIII of the Constitution, concerning Class and Council elections will be offered in the meeting. The change will read, "The elections shall be conducted in a manner to be prescribed by the Student Council." At present the rules are thought to be too binding, according to the Council.

Asking for the attendance of the student body at the Assembly today, Taylor states that the speeches of the candidates and their nominators shall not exceed two minutes respectively.

Mu Phi Epsilon Presents Concert Tonight At 8:15

Presented tonight in the Little Theater will be Mu Phi Epsilon's annual concert. Mu Phi Epsilon is a national music society.

There is no admission charge, and the public is invited to attend. The program for the concert, which will begin at 8:15 p.m., is as follows:

- Lois Foster, Accompanist.
- Je Suis Titania from "Mignon"—Thomas.
- Letha Medlin, Soprano.

PICNIC SET FOR ALUM ROCK PARK TONIGHT

Seniors Honored At Junior Picnic; Swimming, Games On Schedule

Upperclassmen will gather tonight at Alum Rock park from 5:30 until 11 for the junior picnic, to which the seniors were invited by junior class representative Jeanne Wright at a recent orientation meeting.

Transportation to the park will be provided by a truck, donated for the evening by Phil La Barbera, which will leave from in front of the Student Union at 5:30, and again at 6:15, according to Transportation Chairman Marge Bone.

Miss Bone adds that all those who wish to drive their own cars to the picnic are urged to do so.

Schedule for the evening includes swimming and games, under the leadership of Jack Gottschang, from 6 to 8. The picnickers will eat at 8 o'clock, with cokes furnished by the junior class.

"After eating, we will hold a community sing," says Jeanette Owen, junior prexy.

With Ken Coleman in charge of making arrangements for music, there will be dancing in the clubhouse, which is being rented for the evening.

All those who plan to attend the picnic are urged by Miss Owen to "wear jeans, slacks, culottes—anything comfortable that will make for a good time!"

Entertainment for the evening includes baseball, football and hiking, besides the swimming and dancing, according to Social Recreation Co-Chairmen Gerry Reynolds and Bob Gager.

Assisting them on the committee are Arilee Hansen, Bob Taylor, Helen Roberts, and Jemima McCormick.

Refreshment Chairman Elsa Anderson asks that all juniors and seniors attending the picnic bring their own lunch, but adds that there will be plenty of liquid refreshment furnished.

"This is a swell chance for the upper classmen to bury their verbal hatchet and get together for a really swell time," says Prexy Owen.

Bond Drive Held In Quad Today By Beta Gamma Chi

Badges bearing the slogan, "Buy a Bond From Beta," worn by the entire membership, are announcing that Beta Gamma Chi, campus sorority, is sponsoring today's bond and stamp sale in the quad.

The purchase of a stamp entitles the buyer to a chance to win the $25 bond to be given away this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Each stamp sold represents a chance, and there are no limits on the number of chances a person may hold.

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie will officiate at the drawing, and the winner will be announced publicly in tomorrow's Daily.

Decorations are on the order of the war-time theme, and balloons stenciled with "Buy a Bond From Beta" will be floating above the booth in the quad, according to Patricia Reitter, sales chairman.

The committee in charge of today's drive includes Corrine Rainville as publicity chairman; Kay Baird, Jane Beattie, Genevieve and Elaine Gallagher.

Held each Thursday from 9 to 4 o'clock in the quad, the bond sales are the college's contribution toward the drive in progress throughout the nation. Chairman for the campus drives is Rex Gardiner.

"Today's May 13. Let's make it lucky, so far as sales of bonds are concerned," said Mrs. Reitter.

CONFLICT WITH ASB ELECTION CAUSES SPARDI GRAS KING CONTEST TO BE MOVED UP ONE WEEK -- MAY 24-26

Due to conflicts with the coming student body elections, the Spardi Gras king contest has been moved ahead one week, announces Spardi Gras general chairman Orlyn Gire. Originally scheduled for the week of May 17-21, the contest will now be held from May 24 to 26.

The new plan as outlined by Gire now limits the contest to three full days of publicity before the elections. At the same time the proposed plan for a primary election was abandoned.

Nine men now make up the list of contestants in the newly instigated King competition. Balloting on May 26 will be in the form of a preferential vote. The contestant gaining the most votes will be crowned King, while those holding the two runner-up spots shall be named royal attendants.

Interest in this new contest has grown day by day, and various groups have jumped on the band wagon of their favorites. Indications from various sources indicate that the campaigns will have novel twists this year. Replacing the queen competitions of the past, the contestants this year will not be judged for beauty or shapeliness alone. Active publicity will not begin until Monday the 24th.

King candidates and backers:
Bud Verege—Beta Chi Sigma.
Bill Mitchell—Alpha Pi Omega, Phi Kappa Pi, and Beta Gamma Chi.

Joe Weitzenberg — Gamma Phi Sigma and Allenian.

Chuck McCumby — Delta Theta Omega and Kappa Kappa Sigma.

Floyd Wheat—Sappho.

Joe Talbot—Sigma Gamma Omega and Ero Sophian.

Bob Creighton—Phi Mu Alpha.

Stan Black — Delta Sigma Gamma and Mary George House.

Bill Duran—Zeta Chi, Phi Epsilon Kappa, Spartan Knights, and Varsity House.

'Gals Grab,' Frosh Student Body Hop, Set For Saturday

Saturday night the Men's gymnasium will be the scene of a backward barn dance for the student body.

Sponsored by the freshman class, the Gals Grab, name of the affair, will last from 9 to 12 o'clock.

The co-eds will invite the fellows to this affair, and are supposed to call for them, escort them home, and, what is most important, pay their way. From the looks of the way the bids are disappearing from the hands of the freshman council members who are selling them, this arrangement has proved very satisfactory with the students in this college.

Bids are 75 cents and may be obtained at the Controller's office if the council members are sold out, says Betty Regan, bid chairman. The bids are painted with a picture of a rooster "to remind all the chickens of the college to get hold of their rooster pretty quick or the supply will be exhausted," said Ted Worley, president of the class.

During the intermission, a bond will be raffled. With each bid a chance on the bond is given away and the lucky number will be drawn at the dance.

Opportunities to obtain a United States War Savings Bond absolutely free come seldom in anybody's life, and this is another reason the Gals Grab has proved to be popular with the student body, says Worley.

Warning

Council member Mary Virginia Bristow warns all committee heads and department heads who have lists of students to be considered for the recognition assembly, to be sure and have them in the B mailbox by Monday's deadline.

If not, they will not be considered by the council, which meets on that night.

KSJS To Demonstrate Radio Play Production In Oakland On May 21

To demonstrate to high school students how a radio play is enacted, KSJS society will "take Fremont high school students behind the scenes" when they present a radio play, "The Odyssey of Runyon Jones" before the high school's student body May 21.

The play is an entertaining comedy by Norman Corwin, well known radio playwright. Peter Mingrone of the Speech department will direct the play.

The cast, which will travel to the Fremont High school in Oakland to give the play, includes Barbara Whittaker as Runyon, Jack Hume as Father Time, Alice Modry as Mother Nature, Jack Miller as the Giant, Dolores Dolph as Blossom, Jeanette Thimann as Chrono, Milt Brietzke as the First Clerk, Bill Kidwell as Super, Jack Lamp as the First Officer, Duane Heath is the Second Officer, Warren Untiedt as the Chairman, Clarence Cassell as the Second Clerk and First Director, and Brietzke as the Second Director.

SERVICE FLAG

Any student who has relatives or friends in the service who have been students of San Jose State are asked by the Registrar's office to check with him to see if the service man has had a star added to the service flag.

They are also asked to check with the addresses in the Registrar's office to see if they are correct or if the office has received them.

Keeping A Promise?

Many Americans scoff when they hear others around them say that it is our duty to "make the world safe for democracy," to put an end to tyranny and oppression, and "to insure a place in the sun for everyone." Others among us scoff not only at this, but at the very thought that it was necessary for us to enter the war at all.

Regardless of their beliefs on the matter, America has taken an essential part in the war; not the least of which is the task of supplying arms for every member of the United Nations.

If we are to continue this role, and we must, for there is no one to take our place, American industry must have thousands of tons of steel. To produce this vital material, industry must have millions of tons of coal. Our production of coal is now endangered.

The men who mine this coal are threatening to strike because they are not earning enough to buy the essentials of life. We are of the opinion that possibly this is an overstatement. Possibly high union officials have seized this opportunity to further extend their power in a long feud with the Federal government. If the miners and union officials violate their promise made to President Roosevelt a year ago last December 7 not to strike or call strikes until the war is won, they may consider themselves soldiers of Hitler and Tojo just as sure as if they were carrying guns and killing American soldiers.

ON WASHINGTON SQUARE

By LORRAINE GLOS

Starting as a national service society in 1930, the Kappa Kappa Sigma was recognized on-campus in 1932. It started with 10 members and now has about 45.

The main purpose of the organization is helping the girl scouts, which has been their service project for years. Kappa's put on benefit affairs for the scouts, and contribute to their support.

This year the co-eds have participated in various activities around Washington Square. When the ERC men left, they entertained them in the Student Union the day before. They give a Mother's Day brunch each year, and had 75 or 80 at the one given May 2. The Kappa women entertain their alumni members frequently. This quarter the alumni was given a tea, and they plan a breakfast for them at home-coming, in which the graduating seniors will also be honored.

Kappa Kappa Sigma have sponsored a Bond Drive with another society, and collected their quota. They also sponsor campus activities during Spardi Gras, and sport events.

One of their members who attended San Jose State a few years ago is Ruth Matteson, an actress on the New York stage.

This year's president is Lorraine Titcomb; the adviser is Dr. Gertrude Witherspoon, who was the first president of the national organization.

As The Fur Flies

Letters written for the Thrust and Parry column on this page must be signed with the writer's full name and the number of his student body card.

Limit on length of Thrust and Parries is 250 words per article. All contributions should be turned into the Contributors' box just inside the entrance to the Publications office.

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I see by the paper that we are about to have another student body election, come May 17. With ten offices available, only five candidates have been suggested to date.

"Dear me," isn't that awful. Simply scandalous for a school that has maintained such high standards.

"Surely school spirit has not sunk quite as low as these facts lead us to believe," to quote a recent editorial.

Again I say, "dear me." What's so important about student body offices? Why should hard-pressed students spend their time in such non-productive endeavors as are carried on under the heading of "student body activities"?

If we can believe what we read in the papers, our officials must spend most of their time, in order of apparent importance, (1) planning social activities for students whose social calendars are already overcrowded, (2) decrying our very evident lack of school spirit, whatever that is, and (3) either suspending or reinstating campus organizations for some infraction of silly rules.

The alleged importance of student body offices looks like just so much hot air to me. Let's bend our energies to something important.

THERE'S A WAR ON, YOU KNOW!

T. R. S. (ASB card No. 2573).

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Passing along the San Carlos turf today I noticed that in one section a group of boys was hard at work at their PEV exercises—conditioning themselves to better protect their country and, in all probability, their very lives. On the other side of the lawn was a group of girls idly swinging golf clubs or shooting arrows.

With men of this country giving their lives every day for our common cause, why is there no law to make it compulsory for the co-eds of this college to spend some time in the college Red Cross room each day? True, due to pressure exerted by sororities and other campus organizations, some girls do put in a fair amount of time sewing and knitting—but Mrs. Winters tells us she is continually short-handed in the Red Cross room.

It is my contention that the women of this college are not living up to the obligations placed upon them by this "to the death" war. What say you?

Sincerely,

John D. Sayers,

Student Body Card No. 678.

MAJOR QUINTER F. GERHART, former Spartan, is to receive the Distinguished Flying Cross, according to dispatches from the Sixth Air Force in the Caribbean area.

On October 26, 1942, Major Gerhart, piloting a heavy amphibian, landed his craft in heavy seas to refuel a stranded amphibian. The action was described as an urgent rescue mission, and the major is credited with only only saving the stranded plane, but two members of its crew as well.

Major Gerhart was promoted to his present rank only recently. He is a native of Tracy, California, and attended San Jose State where he was a geology major and received his B. A. degree.

In March of 1939 Gerhart entered the Air Corps Flying Cadet school from where he graduated with a commission in November of the same year. He has been in the Caribbean area since December 12, 1939.

Remember BOB "MOE" HAMILL, the football captain of the Hawaii stranded team of 1941? He is now a lieutenant in the Army Air Corps, serving in Africa. DR. KARL HAZELTINE, who corresponds with 33 Spartans in the service, received the following letter from him recently. It was written on Easter Sunday.

JOHN ROBERT DUTTWEILER, son of Mr. Fred Duttweiler, 143 Somerset street, Redwood City, was graduated on May 1 from the Naval Air Training Center, Corpus Christi, and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps reserve.

Lt. Duttweiler is a former Spartan Daily writer. He volunteered for flight training last May, and received preliminary flight instruction at the Oakland Naval Air Station.

ROTUND AL LASSER, former Publications photographer, is now stationed at Sioux Falls, South Dakota. He's at a technical training school.

CHARLES "BUD" STUART, former acting controller of Student Affairs, has been promoted to a lieutenant senior grade.

STEVE HOSA, student councilor a couple of years ago, is now a second lieutenant stationed with the Army at Camp Haan.

SGT. AVE H. JENSEN pens "Just a card to let you know I'm still receiving the Spartan Daily, and some of my friends here are STILL enjoying them as much as ever. Our APO number has been changed. It is now 441 instead of 309. The papers addressed to the old APO I'll still get, but the III' papers will get here even sooner if you use the new address. I CAN'T WAIT too long for them. Thank you."

FORMER LIBRARIAN NOW AT ARMY POST

Miss Mary Frances Marinan, former San Jose State librarian, now holds the position of librarian at Hamilton Field.

She was first sent to Fort Douglas, Utah, for her basic training under the supervision of Xenophon Smith. Smith is head of the 99th Corps area libraries, which includes the entire West coast.

Miss Marinan informed Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian, that she found her new work unusually different and interesting. Before

OUT OF THE HUDDLE

By CHARLES COOK
Sports Editor

We felt in a reckless mood today, so we are going off the deep end (again) here when we bring up a subject that has long been rattling around in our head. The war and national defense have brought it all the more to our attention. What we are proposing is a physical fitness class for the San Jose male faculty members. We are presenting this plan not for the purpose of making "muscle dancers" out of the profs, but primarily to get them in some sort of shape. "Shape" for what? Well, some of them will probably be called to the service before this war is over, and it has been our observation that most of them could stand a little physical tuning up. For those who are eligible for Army or Navy duty, the "refresher course," as it were, would give valuable preliminary conditioning previous to entrance in the service. Sort of a prof PEV set-up.

NEED CONDITIONER

Most of them, with very few exceptions, lead a more or less sedentary existence. As a result of the all-work-and-no-play formula, the profs are upon their current events but are trailing the field as far as general all-around condition is concerned. The Scandinavian peoples have long recognized the benefits derived from controlled athletics. We don't suggest that the profs go out for the football squad next quarter, although their presence would probably be appreciated; but instead we are advocating that they enroll in a special class designed to condition men who are no longer able to go through the vigorous program of our students.

The instructors would be taking the course with men of their own age and condition and would not be forced to compete with the younger, more agile muscles of students. With spring here and good weather an everyday occurrence, the benefits of healthy exercise would be spiced with plenty of fresh air and sunshine. At any rate the program, properly supervised by physical education instructors, could certainly do the profs no harm, and undoubtedly would do them a world of good.

(We will print all learned professorial replies to this one.)

SENIOR SLUGGERS

That mauling marine, Chuck McCumby, who also holds down the senior class president's chair, has formed a red-hot softball team among members of the fourth-year class. He has magnanimously consented to bring his heavy hitters to the junior jamboree tonight at Alum Rock Park for a joust with said juniors. McCumby is not worried about the game's outcome, but expresses grave doubts as to whether the third-year men can muster enough players to round out a full team.

While on the subject of softball we might add that Cy "I'm Wired For Sound" Taylor has rounded up a motley crew which, he says, is strictly a simon pure aggregation. Very well, Mons. Taylor, bring your roster into the Pub office any time and we will supply the competition.

TRACK TEAM'S CHANCES IN MODESTO MEET HIT BY LOSS OF HAL CAPERS; RIBERA HAS COLD

Hal Capers, San Jose's ace high jumper, has withdrawn from school and returned to his home in Los Angeles. Destined to be called in the draft in the near future, he decided to drop out now instead of waiting until the end of the quarter.

His leaving is a body-blow to the chances of the Spartan track team in its remaining meets of the year, Capers being one of the best high jumpers on the west coast and a constant first-place winner for State's cindermen.

He was being counted on to give San Jose some very necessary points in the Modesto Invitational meet, which is coming up this weekend, and his departure along with Ernie Ribera's illness will put a serious crimp in the Spartans' chances for a good showing in the meet.

RIBERA WILL MISS MEET

Ribera is in the Health Cottage with a bad cold, and even if he should be dismissed from the Cottage before the week is over, his condition would not allow him to enter in the competition.

Capers and Ribera were among the scanty seven boys who were to have made the trip to Modesto for Saturday's contest—the former scheduled to participate in the high jump and relay, and the latter in the half-mile run and relay. Their inability to perform, narrows the Spartan list of entries down to five—unless Track Coach "Tiny" Hartman decides to bolster the depleted ranks of his representatives at the meet.

Still left on the list are Bud Veregge, who is to run both hurdle races and one lap of the relay—Kenny Horn in the 220, 440, and relay—Jim Johnson in the broad jump—Floyd Collier in the javelin and discus—and Vern Cooley in the pole vault.

All these boys will have to make the trip at their own expense, because war-time regulations will not allow the use of the school bus, and the college is not planning to pay their expenses for this particular meet.

With a meager five-man entry in the meet, San Jose will have little chance to cop the team title, because the opposing teams—St. Mary's Pre-flight, Fresno State, San Francisco's Olympic club—plus numerous unattached athletes will have an overwhelming superiority in numbers.

Taylor Lobs Way To Victory Over Parnay In Feature Singles Match

Featured by Cyril "all-confidence" Taylor's upset of Dave Parnay, San Jose's intra-squad tennis meet got under way yesterday afternoon at the San Jose tennis club. All of the matches were played excepting one doubles match which will be played Friday afternoon.

In the number one match between Taylor and Parnay, the former got off to bad start and dropped the first set, 6-2, to the husky freshman. The remaining sets were a different story, however, as Taylor's unorthodox style began to bear fruit. He just kept meeting and returning the sphere to his opponent's court, letting him make the mistakes.

Taylor took the second set handily, 6-2, and had but little trouble in capturing the third event 6-4.

The number two singles event was won by Frank San Filippo over Raymond Chang, 6-3, 6-3, in a furious match. Both lads were playing a fast brand of tennis and put on a good exhibition. This match was added to San Filippo's string of victories for the season. He has not been defeated in any engagement.

In the other singles events, Jimmy Thorne had a hot day in disposing of Bert Landess, 6-0, 6-0, while Larry Hansen put the skids to Bill Walker, 6-4, 6-0. Jimmy Thorne displayed his best tennis of the year in his victory, as he just could not seem to miss the corners.

In the only doubles event of the afternoon, Taylor and Walker combined forces to trounce Hansen and Landess in a one-set match, 7-5.

After Taylor's victory over Parnay, he calmly announced that he was ready to accept all comers, and would back up his statements by playing San Filippo Monday afternoon. He added that he would undoubtedly score a straight set win over the undefeated freshman.

STUDENT, FACULTY MUSICIANS WILL PRESENT EIGHTH ANNUAL EVENING OF CHAMBER MUSIC

By WILMA SABELMAN

For the eighth consecutive year, an evening of inspiring Chamber music will be provided Tuesday, May 25, by outstanding college student and faculty musicians.

Directed by Frances Robinson of the Music department, the program will feature as soloist William Erlendson, talented pianist, also of the department. He is teacher of piano and director of the College A Cappella choir.

THREE CLASSICS

Three classics will be presented along with modern selections — a Haydn String Quartet, the famous "Emperor" quartet played by Mu Phi Epsilon members; a Mozart concerto for violin and viola, and the Bach Piano concerto in A major with accompaniment of strings. Gwendolyn Thomas, violinist, and Dorisse Thomassen, violist, will play the Mozart concerto.

The Ravel Harp septet, in which two faculty members will participate, is a repeat number, which was played several years ago. Performances of the musicians, including Harpist Lydia Boothby and Clarinetist Thomas Eagan proved such a success that it was decided to repeat upon request.

ULTRA-MODERN NUMBER

The ultra-modern number of the program will be "Study in Sonority" for 10 violins by Wallingford Riegger.

"This number has been baffling to work out, and has been a real challenge to our students," Director Robinson exclaimed.

In a recent letter from the composer to Miss Robinson, he said that the work was a means of expressing himself and obtaining effects that could not be executed in words.

COMPOSER EXPLAINS

"There was no attempt at the 12-tone system, but the work is consistently atonal in the avoidance of orthodox tonality, although, as is often the case, a sort of tonality has been established," Composer Riegger stated in an attempt to explain the type of music which he tried to put across.

The evenings of chamber music were instigated by Miss Robinson eight years ago upon her arrival at State's Music department.

Eta Epsilon: Please meet on the lawn in front of H. E. building for a few minutes at 12 today. Important information for picnic.

Iota Delta Phi To Present Movie, Play At Theater

Iota Delta Phi, the French honorary society, will present a French play and movie at the Hester theater Thursday, May 20.

The translated title of the play is "English As It Is Spoken," and the movie is "Pepe Le Moko," starring Jean Gabin. "Pepe Le Moko" is the French movie version of "Algiers," in which Charles Boyer played a few years ago.

The cast of "English As It Is Spoken" is as follows: Ann Wilson, Beatrice Champion, Marjorie Rousse, Dr. Boris Gregory, Jo Ann Sweeney, Carol Curtiss, and Margaret Moeck.

T. B. Secretary To Speak Here Today

Mrs. Ann Castellanos, secretary of the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis association, will speak to members of Pi Nu Sigma today at 12:30 in room S227.

Anyone interested in nursing may attend the meeting. Mrs. Castellanos, who is a public health nurse, will talk on "Case Finding and Follow-up of Contacts in the Field of Tuberculosis Nursing." She is a graduate of Stanford university hospital and took public health work at Stanford university.

NEWMAN CLUB TO DISCUSS SPARDI GRAS TONIGHT

Plans for the Spardi Gras concession will be discussed at the Newman meeting tonight. "It is the most important meeting of the quarter, and I hope everyone will attend," stated Barbara Healy, president.

Besides the Spardi Gras business, discussions will be held concerning a dance in the near future. The meeting will be at the Newman club with off-the-record dancing following.

Will the following members of Orchesis meet at 4 o'clock today to practice the "Frisky and Carefree" and "Greeting" numbers: Eleanor, Dot, Shirley, Joy, Charlotte, Harriet, Esther, and Betty Ann?

ANNUAL VOCAL PROGRAM PRESENTED AT MOUNTAIN VIEW HIGH TODAY

Vocal students of San Jose State, under the direction of Maurine Thompson, will present their annual program at the Mountain View high school at 3 o'clock today.

Accompanied on the piano by Stanley Hollingsworth, members of the vocal department are to participate in the presentation of seven different parts of the program.

COSMOPOLITANS MEET TONIGHT

Rev. Stephen Peabody, minister of the First Congregational church, will be guest speaker at the Cosmopolitan club meeting at 7:30 tonight in the Student Center.

Reverend Peabody will tell of his experiences with relief and reconstruction work in the Near East after the last war. He worked with the first group to distribute food and clothing in Armenia and Turkey after 1918.

He will also discuss possibilities for post-war reconstruction after this conflict.

Mrs. William Emig is adviser of the Cosmopolitan club; chairman is Wanita Lowe.

"Gypsy Life" by Clara Edwards will be sung by James Wright, tenor, while Soprano Letha Medlin will sing "Care Selve" by Handel and "Je Suis Titania" from Mignon by Thomas.

Director Thompson, contralto, is scheduled to sing "Tu Lo Sai" by Torelli and "Love Went a-Riding" by Bridge.

Harriet and Margaret Dickerman and Phyllis and Patricia Roll will offer "I Would That My Love" and "The Maybell and the Flow-ers" by Mendelssohn.

"Toreador Song" from Carmen by Bizet will be vocalized by Francis Ebert and the entire group.

Other group songs are "Gypsy Song" from Carmen and "Quintet" from Carmen by Bizet.
